PLAN MILLION DOLLAR PLANT

Tentative Action Taken At Luncheon Wednesday For Big Sugar Beet Industry.

Thirty-five El Paso business men and representatives of Colorado's great sugar beet industry joined in a "coalition" luncheon at the Sheldon hotel Wednesday noon, and took tentative action for the establishment in the El Paso district of a $1,000,000 sugar plant.

Two Luncheons Planned.

Two luncheons originally had been planned, one by the board of governors of the International Soil Products exposition, and International Farm congress, the other by the chamber of commerce in honor of the representatives of the Holly Beet Sugar company of Colorado. It was decided to hold the two luncheons together, as it was believed the objects of all three organizations are the same.

Among those who attended were S. W. Sinsheimer of Denver, president of the Holly Beet Sugar company; J. E. Janger, of Swink, expert chemist for the concern; P. R. Erickson, agricultural specialist; F. L. Lewis, of La Junta, Colo.; T. B. Mandeville and R. F. Porter, of Las Cruces; W. G. Roe, of El Paso; W. I. Drummond, chairman of the board of governors of the International Farm congress; B. K. Hanaforde, Richard F. Burges, president R. B. Orndorff of the El Paso chamber of commerce; secretary Malcolm Fraser, John Wyatt, Arthur Hooker, secretary of the International Congress, and George H. Clements, publicity commissioner of the chamber of commerce.

Tells Of Company's Plans.

President Orndorff presided at the luncheon and introduced Mr. Sinsheimer, who told of the company's plans in Texas and the possibility of establishing the beet sugar industry on a big scale in the El Paso valley.

"So far, our experiments have all been highly favorable to this section," Mr. Sinsheimer said. "The test beets which we have planted in the valley have shown up remarkably well and contain a high percentage of sugar.

Climate Only Question.

"The only question of doubt — our minds is as to the climate. Our reports received so far indicate that the climate is favorable but we never go by hearsay and we are now watching this phase of the question. I can say that I am favorably impressed by the outlook here.

"Our attention was called to this section as a possible field for the beet sugar industry by Mr. Mandeville of Las Cruces, formerly of Colorado. In line with our policy of never overlooking a favorable field for operations, we decided upon a thorough investigation and series of experimental tests."

Richard F. Burges as president of the Irrigation congress, voiced a welcome to the visitors and expresed the keen interest that is felt here in the establishment of the beet sugar industry.

Ask Questions.

On the suggestion of Mr. Sinsheimer, guests at the luncheon who were interested in the sugar question were asked to submit questions and in this way Mr. Sinsheimer made it known that the Holly company is now operating 18 plants in Colorado and that the annual income for the state as a result is nearly $20,000,000.

Mr. Sinsheimer said that El Paso was peculiarly fitted from the labor standpoint to make a success of the sugar industry and the Colorado draws on this section and California in a large measure for its labor. Contracts from a 7000 acreage he said would be necessary to justify the erection of a plant and he said that from his tour of the valley he believed that this could be easily obtained.

Visit Valleys.

The Colorado representatives returned shortly before the luncheon was held from an extended trip through the upper valleys. They were accompanied by W. G. Roe, who met the party at Engle and returned with them from Las Cruces.

"We had a splendid trip," Mr. Roe said. "I judged from the reports of the experiments made that we stand an excellent chance of having the sugar industry added to our list of commercial assets. The trip will be continued Thursday."

A horse attached to a transfer driven by A. Medina was killed Tuesday afternoon at Piedras street and Magoffin avenue when it was struck by an automobile driven by L. Bruno.

The horse was being driven on the left side of the street, which made it impossible for the motorist to avoid striking it, in the opinion of witnesses.

Medina was thrown out of the wagon but, aside from a few bruises, was unhurt. No charge was entered against the automobile owner.

OLD TERLINGUA MINE WORKED

Marlow Wells and Associates Revive Famous Quicksilver Mine.

Marfa, Texas, Aug. 16.—Quicksilver in paying quantities is being taken out of the old Colquitt-Tigner mines near Terlingua. The mine is being operated under an option bond by Marlow Wells, Henry Hill and David Gough. Wells passed through Marfa with ten flasks of quicksilver that had been taken from the mine, which formerly was a famous producer.

Will Do Diamond Drilling.

On the property is a large body of low grade ore. The men who now are operating the mine are preparing to do diamond drilling to determine the depth of the vein which is 150 feet in width. A shaft 15 feet deep has been sunk which shows increasing richness with depth.

Expect to Get Big Results.

Wells is a Texan and the men interested with him are experienced mining men, Henry Hill being a mine owner and cattleman of the Clifton, Ariz., district and David Gough a well known mining engineer. It is believed the old mine can be made a rich producer with proper machinery, which is to be installed.
