

LOCAL MATTERS.

The weather this week has been clear and rather warm for the season.

We have some correspondence about the Indian situation at San Carlos, and also upon mining, which will have attention next week.

Gov. Safford and Lieut. Bourke left on the 28th ult. for a trip through the southern part of the Territory, and may go as far as Magdalena before they return.

The October term of the district court of Pima county opens next Monday. We understand United States and Territorial grand juries will be impaneled. G. H. Oury and Judge McCarty, attorneys, will be present during the term, and possibly others from abroad.

This regular quarterly meeting of the Pima county supervisors will open next Monday. Supervisor Carr arrived by last Tuesday's stage and will be present as will also Supervisor Fish. Probably a Supervisor will be appointed by the board to fill the vacancy caused by the recent death of Mr. Pughes.

Read dissolution notice of Wm. B. Hooper & Co. Mr. John S. Carr retires and the firm continues by the same name. It is one of the best in Arizona, and is constantly prepared to supply the trade with the best of goods at prices so little above San Francisco cost that interior dealers may with advantage purchase of the house.

Fifty thousand dollars has been set apart to continue the building of Camps Lowell and Grant, and we are informed that $20,000 is the amount Gen. Crook has directed to be applied to Lowell. Proposals for furnishing 600,000 adobes "in the wall," are out by Maj. Furey, and it is expected the work will promptly go forward and a fine post be constructed. Gen. Carr, commanding the post, did excellent work at McDowell and doubtless will here.

Sheriff Hayes, of Maricopa county, arrived in Tucson Wednesday morning with a prisoner named Patrick Flynn. Flynn was recently convicted in the district court of Maricopa county for an assault with a deadly weapon and sentenced to seven months in the Territorial penitentiary, and was brought here for imprisonment. At the time of the recent escape of Joe Dawson and a Chinaman from the Maricopa jail, Flynn declined to leave, preferring to be a law abiding prisoner. The Sheriff returned on Thursday.

"JOSEPH" writes us from Camp Grant. He probably writes what ought to be published, and the tone of his letter indicates that he ought to have some sense about almost universal newspaper rules. If he can't trust his name with us, we will not give his matter to the public, no odds how precious or just it is. His name may be too sacred to entrust to a newspaper office, and if he so regards it, he may as well consider his writings too sacred for the common public's eye. And so along Joseph.

Messes. Moore & Carr, of the Yuma stage line and general merchants and traders at Maricopa Wells, have dissolved partnership in all their business, as will be seen by new advertisements in this paper. Mr. J. A. Moore will continue the several branches of business as heretofore done by the firm, and it is with pleasure we inform the public that he will spare no pains to merit the patronage of the public. All departments of the business, Mr. Moore informs us, will be rather improved than otherwise, and all just wants of the public be liberally and promptly cared for.

Charles H. Kenyon is appointed superintendent of the stage line and will give his undivided attention and experience to the work.

PERSONAL.—Larkin W. Carr arrived from Yuma by Tuesday's stage and expects to prospect this section for a month or so.

The proprietor of this paper returned on Tuesday from a trip to Prescott. His observations appear to-day in letters.

H. B. Summers arrived by last night's stage from Sanford and will remain during the term of the district court.

C. L. Minor of The Yuma Sentinel left for Yuma by stage of Thursday.

Col. Robert Morrow, Paymaster U. S. A., expects to start to Prescott to-day and thence to San Francisco. The Colonel has made many friends in Arizona, and in addition to being a first-rate paymaster, he is a very companionable gentleman. His clerk, Mr. Vedder, expects to start for San Francisco via San Diego by to-day's stage. Good fortune and happiness attend both.

FOLLOWING are the jurors summoned for the term of district court which convenes next Monday:

Grand Jurors. Francisco Munguia, M. McKenna, Gabino Ortega, Estevan Ochoa, James H. Toole, Ramon Pacheco, C. A. Paige, Francisco Ruelas, J. W. Sweeney, W. A. Smith, Solomon Warner, Leonard Apodaca, Wm. Dempsey, George Coulter, Bernardino Campa, Emilio Carillo, T. Driscoll, Leopoldo Devaux, J. M. Elias, J. G. Huckle, Pat Holland, Peter Forbach, Peter Van Haren, N. M. Rodgers.

Trial Jurors. M. Hewitt, B. M. Jacobs, A. Levin, James Lee, R. N. Leatherwood, M. I. Martinez, John Miller, H. Ott, H. B. Smith, H. S. Stevens, J. S. Vashburg, John Wythe, E. D. Wood, Wm. Zeckenroff, W. H. Bailey, Thos. Belknap, C. O. Brown, R. M. Crandal, W. C. Davis, S. H. Drachman, Wm. Estelle, E. N. Fish, B. D. Fairbanks, Joe Ferris, M. G. Gay, I. Goldberg, Joe Goldtree, Samuel Hughes, J. B. Allen, J. W. Davis, A. Caballero, John Burt, F. Cozter, Charles T. Etchells, George Foster, J. Stephenson, B. H. Paige, J. S. Fried, C. S. Leon and Jesus Pacheco.

Our advertisement of "L..." and try to accommodate the loser.

READ E. D. Wood's new Advertisement. He has a very large stock of goods all the time, and the largest and best he ever had will be here in a few days.

J. E. McCaffery, Esq., is cleaning up and otherwise improving his property to the rear of his office, in a manner that might be safely imitated by other real estate owners.

Samuel Hughes is pushing to completion a new building between the jail and the property he recently purchased of P. R. Brady.

Hiram S. Stevens is making good progress on his new building at the corner of Main and D streets.

Apache Independence in New Mexico.

Van C. Smith, Esq., arrived in town last evening from his home in Lincoln county. We learn from him that there is considerable excitement among the Apaches at Fort Stanton and a number have already left the reservation. The cause of the trouble was a demand made upon them for stock now on the reservation and claimed to have been stolen since they came in; the Indians refused to give it up and run off. Col. Price, with five companies of cavalry is in pursuit of the runaways.—[New Mexican.]

The facts are that the Apaches of New Mexico were debauched by the Peace Commissioners, and no firm hand like that of Gen. Crook has since taken hold of or attempted to govern them. They have been constantly running backward and forward during the past year between Chise's reserve and Tulerosa, and the Mexicans say that from the latter reserve they are constantly raiding upon them. But they have not yet been insulted by being requested or required to give up the property they have stolen from Mexico, hence they do not become restless.

THE Apaches killed Capt. J. B. Townsend near Dripping Springs, eastward of Prescott, between the 16th and 20th of September. He left home alone on the 16th and his body was found on the 20th, after three days' search by friends. For months a band of Indians was known to have been in that vicinity, and had, not long before, made an attack; but Townsend had, according to The Miner, killed thirty-six Indians in various fights and got away unharmed; therefore he had ceased to be prudent and rashly encountered danger and thereby lost his life. Many even think he was hunting Apaches when killed. Be this as it may, he was killed as stated and his death is one of general regret in and around Prescott and by all who knew him. No well-posted man thinks this killing indicates an Indian outbreak, and there is abundant evidence that the Apaches are being gradually reduced to better subjection.

The Wheeler Survey.

On Sunday evening, Lieutenant G. M. Wheeler, U. S. A., in charge of the Wheeler surveying parties in Arizona, New Mexico and Utah, together with Mr. George M. Lockwood, an assistant, arrived in Denver from Santa Fe. These gentlemen came out from Camp Apache, where one of the parties is now busily engaged in surveys and explorations. There are now ten parties in the field, the greater portion of whom will continue their work up to December. Since they have been out, the parties have accomplished a great deal of work, and the results of the survey will be looked for with a great deal of anxiety. Lieut. Wheeler and Mr. Lockwood are now en route to Washington to begin the office work, and the whole winter season will be spent compiling and arranging the various reports. Before going east Lieut. Wheeler will visit Salt Lake City, San Francisco and intermediate points, examining astronomical stations.—[Denver News, Sept. 3.]

THE extraordinary money panic in New York and other eastern cities, has about subsided according to the latest advices. Jay Cooke & Co. who first suspended have made a statement showing their ability to pay all the firm's liabilities and have several millions left. This statement at once re-established confidence and substantially ended the panic.

THE Las Cruces Borderer of September 27 has this item of interest in Arizona:

J. W. Roberts of Fort Worth, Texas, is in town; he is returning to Arizona with another herd of 2,000 bees purchased on the Pecos, in Lincoln county. Among the herd are seven splendid Durham bulls, which will be sold to private parties in Arizona.
