

In Memoriam: Bob Flogaus

Flogaus, Robert Charles (Bob) of Phoenixville and previously Wayne Pennsylvania, passed away on May 15th 2012, with his wife and sons by his side. Born, Lansing Michigan, 1939. Son of Howard Andrew Flogaus, Sr. and Helen Stephan Flogaus. Bob was predeceased by his brothers Howard A. Flogaus, Jr. (Jake) and William Stephan Flogaus (Bill).

Beloved husband of 44 years to Linda (Lee, nee Nabors), adored father of David A. Flogaus (Annie) and W. Randall Flogaus (Diane) and Pop-Pop of cherished grandchildren Danny, Caroline and Emily.

Bob grew up in Wallingford, PA and graduated from Nether Providence (Strath Haven) High School and Drexel University with a B.S. in Mechanical Engineering. The Drexel co-op program paved the way to 48 years of employment at Schramm, Inc. in West Chester, where he rose to the title of Chief Engineer of Hydraulics. Bob was a proud 37-year member of the Society of Automotive Engineers.

Throughout his life he was an active car enthusiast and drag racer in the Delaware Valley. He enjoyed muscle cars in the 60's, Mustangs and Buicks in the 80's and 90's, and more recently his prized Corvettes. He was also a member of the Delaware Valley Chapter of the BMW Car Club of America, held in high esteem. Treasured friends from automotive pursuits gladly enabled an extended adolescence. A private celebration of Bob's life is planned for June 30th, 2012.

Arrangements were facilitated by The Hicks Homes for Funerals, PA of Elkton, Maryland. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made in Bob's name to the highly respected National teen driver safety training program, Tire Rack Street Survival at: 201-A Pelham-Davis Circle, Greenville, SC 29615 (864) 329-1919 for further information, please visit: <http://streetsurvival.org/about-street-survival/>
