O/P $78.75

We have received notice of the death of the above-named payee. If notice of death is in error, please inform us so that our records may be adjusted.

Any Treasury Department check(s) issued in favor of this beneficiary, or to a member of his family on his account, which were not endorsed by the payee prior to his death cannot legally be cashed. These should be returned immediately to the Division of Disbursement, Treasury Department, 536 South Clark Street, Chicago, Illinois.

If any unendorsed checks were negotiated subsequent to the death of the payee, an immediate refund must be made to this office. This should be by personal check or money order drawn payable to the Veterans Administration.

In either case, it is requested that you show the information requested below and return this letter to this office. A self-addressed envelope is enclosed for your convenience. If refund check is enclosed, please note on envelope "Attention: Agent Cashier".

Very truly yours,

Encl.
