

Terrazas: Salvador R. Terrazas, 66, passed away January 31 in Bayard. Mr. Terrazas was born in Acencion, Mexico, and was a retired employee of Kennecott Copper Corporation. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mauricia Terrazas of Hurley, two daughters, Lucille Cordova of Bayard, Josie Terrazas of Fullerton, Calif., two step-sons, Johnny Cardoza of Silver City, Mike Cardoza of Riverside, Calif. and six grandchildren. Survivors also include five sisters, Eligia Mungai and Eulalia Pena; both of Tehachapi, Calif., Ramona Sepulveda of Columbus, N. Mex., Leonor Lucero and Julia Dominguez, both of Juarez, Mexico, a brother, Manuel Terrazas of Tehachapi, Calif. and several nieces and nephews. Rosary recitation was at 7:00 p.m. February 3, at the Infant Jesus Catholic Church in Hurley with Rev. Fr. Jesus Espinosa officiating. Funeral Mass was there at 10:30 a.m. February 4, with Rev. Fr. Leonardo Lucero conducting services. Burial followed in the Hurley Cemetery. Serving as pallbearers were Andres Garcia, Ernest Huerta, Manuel Huerta, Jr., Amador Reyes, Jr., Manuel Valles and Cesario Vallejos. Honorary pallbearers were Willie Garcia, Manuel Huerta, Sr., Miguel Garza, Sr., Jose Apodaca, Roberto Carreon and Freddie Garcia. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Heart Fund. Curtis-Bright Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.